

YOUNG VALLEY TO RELEASE THEIR SELF-TITLED
SOPHOMORE STUDIO ALBUM APRIL 20TH ON VINYL,
CD, DIGITAL & STREAMING FORMATS VIA DIAL
BACK SOUND

Jackson, Mississippi's Young Valley offers points of view from songwriters Zach Lovett, Dylan Lovett and Spencer Thomas with a trading of ideas and styles from traditional country to southern-tinged rock 'n' roll. Since the release of their debut album No Filter in 2014, the boys have toured 34 states over the span of a couple years sharing the stage with Shooter Jennings, Lucero, American Aquarium, Phosphorescent and Futurebirds.

The band recorded their sophomore self-titled album early last year at Dial Back Sound in Water Valley, MS and this 10-track effort is set to be released this spring. "Well-rehearsed, well-refined, raw" they told Find It In Fondren (a popular Jackson neighborhood magazine) calling it a record that "falls off the bone."

Young Valley's self-titled album will be available in Europe, January 26, 2019 on vinyl, CD, digital and streaming formats via Matt Patton (Drive-By Truckers / The Dexateens) and engineer/producer Bronson Tew's new label imprint Dial Back Sound.
